

372 Swanbrook Road, Inverell

HOME AMONG THE GUM TREES

Tucked away amidst the majestic gums, 372 Swanbrook Road offers an escape from the everyday, where nature and serenity reign. Nestled on 10 acres (approx.), this solid brick home strikes the perfect balance of seclusion and convenience, giving you a peaceful retreat where your family can grow, relax, and create lasting memories.

This home features a spacious open-plan layout that effortlessly blends family living and entertaining. The large kitchen, complete with ample storage, expansive bench space, and a dishwasher, flows seamlessly into the two dining and living areas. High ceilings and generous room sizes enhance the sense of openness, creating a bright and airy atmosphere, along with reverse cycle air conditioning and wood heating. Cleverly designed built-in storage cupboards in the casual living room hide a study nook with a desk, adding both functionality and style.

5 bedrooms, each presenting ample space, natural light, built in robes, and soft carpet underfoot. The main bedroom stands out with its walk-in robe, ensuite, reverse cycle air conditioning, and private balcony, while bedroom 2 also offers reverse cycle air conditioning.

Thoughtfully designed 3-way bathroom is perfect for both busy mornings and relaxing evenings. Picture yourself unwinding in the spa bath, with serene garden views and elevated vistas, creating a tranquil retreat where you can truly escape and rejuvenate.

The laundry with storage cupboards, external access and the home's 3rd toilet completes the layout.
